Going out for the evening? One of the first things to leave with the babysitter is the telephone number where you can be reached.

And don't forget a list of emergency numbers; like Fire, Police, and Doctor. There's a special place on the inside cover of your directory for these numbers. Have you written them down?

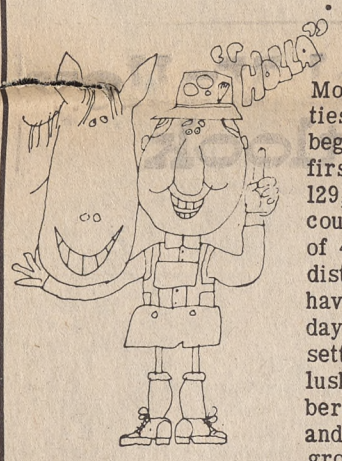
Now, here's a real shaggy customer story for you. It seems there's a German shepherd dog in Los Angeles who answers phone calls and holds the receiver in his mouth until his master comes. What's more, every month he pays the phone bill! He carries the payment in his teeth and drops it right on the counter of our public office.

• • •

Smokey the Bear reminds us to be extra careful this summer. A thing as small as a match . . . or a cigarette . . . or a spark from a campfire can destroy something as vast as a forest.

• • •



Monterey and San Benito Counties' Pacific telephone directory began Wednesday July 24. The first distribution will service 129,900 telephones in the two counties, which is an increase of 4,900 over last year's initial distribution. Every one should have their new books by Saturday night July 27. A tranquil setting with bovine grazing in lush pasture, the well-remembered water hole of days gone by and Santa Anna Peak in the background, is the choice for this year's cover.

MIKE ANTONCICH AND HERB BROWNELL

Mike Antoncich buys Carmel Valley Realty

Valley real estate broker Mike Antoncich has purchased the Carmel Valley Realty Company from Herb Brownell and will continue to maintain both the Upper Valley Office at Carmel Valley Road and Pilot Rd., and the Mid-Valley office at Farm Center. Herb will remain in the office in the capacity of consultant.

Mike has been a realtor in the Valley for the past seven years and a broker for the past four, working with Irene Baldwin. He and his wife, Betty have been residents since 1952. Betty is the owner of the Playtime Nursery School on Upper Circle and a high school teacher in Salinas.

Herb, who has been in the Valley since 1929, started the Carmel Valley Realty Company in early 1947.

Up until April he had been serving as a state inheritance tax appraiser, a post which he held recently. Although he is not associated with it any longer, he said he will still be busy winding up work that is still pending from that time.

Working in the company with Mike will be Lois Deal, Lucille Chambers, Ada Roxbury, Beverly Brownell and Curtis Bennett.

CVYO News

RUMMAGE SALE

The Carmel Valley Youth Organization is holding a benefit rummage sale on Saturday and Sunday, July 27 and 28.

The CVYO needs more rummage to make this a successful venture, however.

So far, they have acquired 3 TV's and scads of clothes, but they need more and varied items. If you have any things around the house that are no longer needed or in use, please call 659-4681 and they will be happy to pick things up.

The youth of the Valley will prosper only as a result of YOUR support. They need both the support and the rummage.

DINE-A-MITE THANKS

Tuesday was the last Little League game of the season when the Dine-a-Mite snack wagon will be operated. The members of the CVYO would like to extend a warm thank you to all who helped the kids out on this. They would especially like to thank Mal Tavares, Phil Wright, Mr. Richerts, Mr. Avis, Lloyd Todd and any others who donated their time to pull the Dine-a-Mite snack wagon to and from the game.

SKI TRIP

Anyone interested in joining the ski trip to Lake Tahoe next January or February should contact Carl Cecka to sign up. The trip cannot be arranged unless there is a minimum of 40 people. Average cost per person will be $40, $40, including rooms, meals and ski facilities.

BEACH PARTY

The CVYO beach party is scheduled for tonight at 7:30 p. m. Come on and bring a friend!

EDITORIAL

Spectators hamper firefighters

Fire Chief Chip Collins has informed us that the department has been hampered tremendously in getting to fires, and manipulating equipment around the fires, by curious spectators, both on foot and in vehicles. Since there has been an epidemic of fires, there has been a great amount of concern and interest generated, but it is still against the law to follow the fire trucks, unless authorized.

Collins would like us to remind everyone of Section 21706 of the Motor Vehicle Code.

"No motor vehicle, except an authorized emergency vehicle or a vehicle of a duly authorized member of a fire department shall follow within 300 feet of any vehicle of a fire department which is responding to an emergency or fire call."

Section 21707 states that only authorized vehicles may be operated or driven any closer than a block or 300 feet from any such emergency until the officer or fireman in charge directs it.

There is also another ruling which applies the same restrictions to pedestrians or "fire watchers."

While there's no malice intended by most fire watchers, it is a disservice to both the firemen and the residents of the community to hamper the efficiency of the members of the fire department. In addition, there is always a much greater chance of injury resulting if the area is congested with people who are not supposed to be there.

Help the firemen,...don't hinder them.

The Valley will miss Boyd

When the Valley was younger and there weren't nearly as many people here, everyone had to pitch in to get the necessary community work done. One of these who has worked the hardest is about to retire from the Valley...and from Community endeavors.

Boyd Danielson will be sorely missed by his colleagues and friends. One of his greatest services to Carmel Valley has been 20 years with the Volunteer Fire Department. When the need arose for a fire district, Boyd was there as one of the charter members.

We wish he would just retire and stay here, but he is returning to his home state of Kansas, and we wish him well in the years to come.

–GD

PERSPECTIVE

TO THE EDITOR

Come to the party!

Letter to the Editor:

All of us at the Carmel Valley Volunteer Fire Department regret seeing our fellow fireman, Boyd Danielson, leave the area. He is going back home to Kansas to retire.

Boyd has had 20 years of perfect service with the Fire Department and is now assistant chief. When it comes to fires, Boyd really knows his business!

Everyone at the Fire Department urges the community to turn out for Boyd's farewell dinner, which will be a barbecue at the Little League Field on Sunday, August 4. Chicken will be the food of the day and serving will begin at 2 p.m.

There will also be entertainment, including dancing to live western music.

Valley Postal service is cut

Valley Postmaster Sam Brandt has been ordered by the Postmaster General, W. Marvin Watson, to comply with the cut-back required by Congress, by reducing postal services and curtailing new hiring. This is part of the recently enacted tax bill, Public Law 90-364.

The effect on Carmel Valley residents will be that all regular Saturday window service will be discontinued, effective July 27. General Delivery windows will be open for two hours, from 10 to 12 noon, and persons who have received parcel notices may pick them up during those hours.

However, no stamp drawers will be open and only first class mail, dropped through the chutes will be handled.

NEW LANDSCAPING at the Valley branch of Bank of America has greatly enhanced its appearance. A large number of low-growing evergreens have been planted in front and along the side areas of the building.

The Rhyming Philosopher

So what does it matter your name's not inscrolled
On tablets of time and tradition?
To live a good life with content to grow old
Is virtue enough for ambition.

The talent God gave you to just be yourself
Is there as your sub-conscious mentor,
Which isn't a matter of station or wealth
But a guide to what you were meant for.

Some people, for instance, feel called on to preach,
While others just have to be leaders.
And some like to listen, and some like to teach;
For those who must write, there are readers.

Then some find fulfillment as mothers of men,
And some are good helpers or agents.
While some till the soil, yet you'll find now and then
Some experts in making arrangements.

There's fish that don't fly, and the linnets don't swim,
The sun serves its purpose by shining.
You're made to be uou: so don't try to be him;
Remember, it's Heaven's designing.

"See How They Run" at Circle

Amorous Flea opens Thursday at White Oaks

Described by New York critics as "continuously amusing and frequently downright hilarious," "The Amorous Flea" will open the White Oaks Theatre 10th annual summer musical season Thursday.

As Judith Crist describes the story, "Arnolphe, as you probably don't recall, is the old goat who has raised the lovely Agnes from the age of 4 in total ignorance so that she will make him the perfect wife. He has her in solitary confinement on the brink of marriage, when the handsome young Horace, son of a dear friend, arrives to breach the barricades. It's nonsense in the classic vein... and stylish as all get out. It's all as pretty as a picture... and as funny, lovely lively and gay as a first-rate little musical should be."

"Amorous Flea" will play Thursday and Saturday evenings till September 1.

On Friday night, a premiere will be held at White Oaks, as "Electric Music Hall" will be presented for the first time on any stage. A bright, witty satirical musical revue, it will play Friday and Sunday nights.

Mystery farce is next at Circle

"Seven Keys to Baldpate," written by the grand old showman, George M. Cohan (in just 10 days) will be the next offering of the Circle Theatre, opening on August 1.

The mystery-farce has as its hero, William Magee, a writer of "Who-dunnits", who burns up the typewriter at about as rapid a pace as song and dance man, Cohan.

Magee comes to Baldpate Inn one wintry night to win a bet with the owner of the deserted summer hotel. He has wagered a cool five thousand dollars that he can turn out a best seller in 24 hours.

Baldpate Inn, far from being deserted and peaceful, becomes a beehive of activity as six other possessors of keys to the inn arrive. Magee had been assured by the owner that he had the only key, but suddenly the night turns into one of pandemonium with piercing shrieks, murder and disappearing corpses brought about by the assorted blackmailers, thieves and crooks who have the other six keys.

Auditions for Studio Theatre

The Studio Theatre, Dolores Street, Carmel, will hold auditions Sunday at 2:30 and Monday at 7 to select a cast for the Neil Simon comedy "Come Blow Your Horn."

The Hal March role of Alan Baker calls for a man-about-town type between 25 and 35. His parents who were Lou Jacobi and Pert Kelton in the Broadway production are essentially comic types of suitable age. Buddy, the younger brother, could be anywhere from 18 to 25 which is also the range for the two attractive girls who complete the cast of six.

"Come Blow Your Horn"-predecessor of "Barefoot in the Park" and "The Odd Couple" in the Neil Simon hit list, will go into rehearsal at once under the direction of Gary Eldridge and will open at the Studio on September 6 for a run of six or seven weekends.

Anyone unable to attend the scheduled try-outs may call 624-1661 or 624-2321 to arrange another time.

Feast of Lanterns chicken barbecue to be held on Saturday

A new feature has been added to Pacific Grove's annual Feast of Lanterns this year. A chicken barbecue, from 3-5 p.m. will be held on Saturday, July 27, at Lovers Point. The barbecue will be set up to handle hundreds of persons.

Saturday night is the traditional parade of boats, lighted with lanterns. They sail from Monterey to Pacific Grove and arrive with a fanfare of fireworks, which is enjoyed by thousands of people, residents and tourists alike. At this time, Queen Topaz is crowned by the queen of last year's Feast of Lanterns.

FOUR DAYS

The Feast of Lanterns is a four day event, beginning on Thursday with a golf tournament at the Pacific Grove Municipal Golf Course and a Men's and Women's tennis tournament at the Community Center courts.

Throughout the days and evenings there are street dancing, band concerts, special exhibits, in art and floriculture, as well as exhibits at the library and museum of Natural History.

TREASURE HUNT

MR. AND MRS. JEFFREY WATTS

Nancy Deck weds Jeff Watts

A noon wedding at the Carmel Valley Community Chapel united Nancy Lee Deck and Jeffrey Cid Watts in marriage on July 13. Rev. Don Johnson performed the ceremony.

Nancy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond M. Keane of Poppy Road, and Jeffrey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Watts of Del Rey Oaks.

The bride wore a floor length gown of saki cloth with a scooped neckline, elbow sleeves and a three tiered back trimmed with Venice lace. A pearl cluster held her shoulder length veil, and she carried a bridal bouquet of pale yellow rosebuds.

Toni Marie Deck, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor and Dennis Watts, brother of the groom, served as best man. John Deck, the bride's brother, acted as usher.

A reception was held following the ceremony at Lou's Casa Carmela, after which the young couple left for a honeymoon trip to Southern California. They will make their home on Via Milpitas in Carmel Valley.

CHS students do well at San Jose

Carmel High School graduates attending San Jose State College have higher grade point averages than the typical undergraduate. Five local students achieved at 2.89 grade point average last semester as opposed to a 2.49 for all undergraduate students.

KANSAS VISIT

Family reunions highlighted the stay in Kansas of Lcdr. and Mrs. Dean Ortman, of El Caminito Rd., with Sandi, Dean and sons, Michael, Steven and Daryl, flew east to visit their families in Newton and Albert, Kansas, where temperatures were close to 100 degrees for several days. It had been two years since they had been 'home' and the first opportunity for Sandi's parents to meet the baby, Daryl.

They held a reunion for the Valleyites which gave them an opportunity to visit with relatives, former neighbors and members of their church.

Newton is the home of Dean's parents, who were Valley guests during the holidays. They also were guests of Dean's aunt, uncle and grandmother.

SWIM PARTY

Swimming and games followed by a hot dog supper and birthday cake were the special events enjoyed by Sharon Hogans and the guests invited to celebrate her eighth birthday at the Poppy Road home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kamerer. Sharon's mother, Mrs. Nancy Hogans was assisted during the afternoon by Connie Usher, Ginni Thayer, and Nancy Bletzer.

The guest of honor, a student at Madame Ziceva's School of Ballet, mailed ballerina invitations to Cindy Schwerer, Jody Thayer, Gladys Zarazua, Cynthia Platter, Laurie Petkus, Scarlett Hattan, Jimmy Thayer, and Sharon's brother, Jeff.

Mrs. Kamerer who had been visiting in the East did not arrive home in time for the festivities. Her travels included visits in Michigan with her daughter, Mrs. Ann Hoffman, in Chicago, and in Long Island, New York with Mrs. Bob Adamson. Mrs. Ken Dyer of Oakland is a house guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. Kamerer.

NEWSY PAPER

Under the masthead of the Valley's newest (and newsiest!) newspaper, THE CARMELO GAZETTE, published by the students enrolled in the summer school program sponsored by the Carmel Unified School District is the hope-filled, terse notation: "This newspaper is just coming out. It may have something wrong with it, but pretty soon it will clear up."... (The exact sentiments shared for nine years by the Phantom Oak Moth!)

Staff of the Gazette is made up of K thru 4th Grade students who are Diane Woods, Art; Lisa Johnson, Society; Danny McLeod, Sports; Kim Koester, Reviews; Amy Brock, Ads; Claudia Hrusa, Headlines; Jenny Douglas, Barbara Bell and Maureen Horan, Interviews; and Reporters: Jane Alden, Janice Luce, Stephen Horan, Seaneen Christian, David Giffin and Ben Olsen.

BARRACUDA PARTY

BIRTHDAY

Cheryl Gorham had been 2 and 1/2 for such a long time that when she celebrated her birthday on July 11 she just automatically became 3 and 1/2! The charming little girl who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

MARLINDE VON RUHS (right) introduced Mexican artist Hector Navarro (center) to Mrs. Thomas Bunn during a reception held at the Von Ruhs Gallery in Sunset Center. Navarro, who has exhibited extensively in Mexico and the United States, has had a one-man show in Marlinde's gallery this month. During the Olympics, Marlinde will be traveling to Mexico to show her works in the capitol during the intercultural Art Festival at the invitation of the Olympic Committee.

Carmel Valley Community Youth Center

Thanks to Fred Boehme for his donation of panels; and thanks to Dick McKenzie and Roger Sherman for using them to build a "shack" to contain tools and swimming pool equipment, thereby making the former storage room available for transforming into a Snack Bar!

If anyone is wondering why the showers at the pool are not being used, it's because, due to the dry conditions, the drain field is not functioning properly. At present, foot-baths are in order! And a new drain field is going to be necessary.

We need two or three picnic tables and benches for the new patio. We will be happy and grateful if anyone has any to donate!

Free concerts at MPC July 24-25

Free public concerts have been scheduled by Monterey Peninsula College music instructor Henry Smith for July 24 and 25.

Featuring the MPC brass and woodwind ensembles, which have practiced as evening summer session classes under Smith's direction for six weeks, the first concert will be staged Wednesday evening at 8:30 in the college music hall.

The brass ensemble will present Copland's "Fanfare for the Common Man," a work so popular last summer that it is being repeated this year, according to Smith, "by popular request"; "Canzon Quatre" by Gabrielli, "with a special staging effect"; and the local premiere of a jazz fanfare by John Lewis.

The woodwinds' program will include "Tambourine," by Schubert; one movement from "La Reine," a symphony by Haydn; "Variance,"--a ' 20th century dodecaphonic piece' by Frank Erickson; and "Adagio for Strings" by Samuel Barber, a piece originally composed for strings.

The second concert will feature the brass ensemble only in concert Thursday, 1 p.m. at the Carmelite Monastery on Highway 1 "just past the little red schoolhouse."

MONTEREY COUNTY FAIR

Take one part art, one part agriculture, one part entertainment, one part flowers and one part culinary excellence, blend well for smoothness, and there's the Monterey County Fair.

It will be served at the fairgrounds on the edge of the city of Monterey for five days next month, Aug. 7 through 11, in an oasis of oaks and thick green lawns--and the management promises a mixture with a flavor to please every palate.

ART

There will be art in three categories--an exhibition of paintings and sculpture in two divisions, traditional and modern; a display of crafts which includes ceramics, jewelry, leather, metals, textile decoration, stone cutting, weaving and woodworking; and an exhibit of black and white photographic prints.

LIVESTOCK

In agriculture and livestock there will be a horde of entries from both junior and senior growers and breeders. Some of the senior categories offer extended classes open to entrants from the 11 western states. Still others are restricted to entries from Monterey County.

Prize beef, dairy cattle and sheep will be shown by senior exhibitors. There also will be feature booths designed this year around a "fantasy" theme and created to spotlight the farm products of an organization or a community.

The agriculture-horticulture department will feature products ranging from artichokes to zucchini. One whole section will feature containers of vegetables, fruits, berries and nuts packed for market.

4 H

Four-H Club and Future Farmer of America members will bring farm animals and farm products for display, and will compete in judging contests and in showmanship classes as they exhibit their beef and dairy cattle, their sheep and swine.

For 4-H Club members only there will be a special light horse class.

The traditional junior livestock sale, when all market stock champions will be sold at auction, will begin at 10 a.m. on Aug. 10.

Fair-goers who need a change of pace from inspecting prize Herefords or picture-book pastries may drop in at the Fairgrounds open air theatre for a few moments of relaxation--or for an hour or two, if they choose. There will be continuous entertainment at the theatre from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. all five days of the fair.

FLOWERS

Flower displays, ranging from the lush shade garden blossoms of begonias and fuschias to the bewildering explosions of color of a psychedelic garden, will enthrall the fairgoer who visits the floriculture department exhibits. Cut flower and potted plant divisions promise a glimpse of almost every kind of flower which can be grown in the central coast area.

In the home economics department, lavish displays of jams, jellies and juices created by the area's best cooks, flanked by pastries, breads — and cakes which rival the best from grandmother's kitchen will await the gaze of the fairgoer.

NEEDLE WORK

Coupled with this culinary display is an accompanying exhibit of knitting, crocheting and needlework, even to the "pieced quilts" which were the pride of the pioneer woman.

The needlework skills of the past are becoming a very "in" thing for the 20th century woman too, confides Mrs. Clarence Atwood, department chairman. She says the needlework displays at the Monterey fair grow yearly at a pace which amazes her.

HORSE SHOW

Add to all of this a five-day national horse show, with two performances daily, and with events ranging from classes for five-gaited animals to Western cutting horses, and it totals a very full agenda of things to see and do next month at the Monterey County Fair.

Flowers and gardens abound at Monterey County Fair

Gardeners and flower arrangers...take notice! The deadline for entries in the floriculture department of the Monterey County Fair is July 27. Entry blanks must be in the mail or in the hands of the fair management by 5 p.m. of that day.

Mrs. Adam Matuszek, floriculture department head, encourages children as well as adults to enter.

"There's something for everyone," she said. "There are many classes for amateur and novice exhibitors as well as for the advanced gardener and professional nurseryman."

There is only one entry in each section in a class and there are NO artificial flowers or artificially dyed flowers.

So, whether you gather your flowers from the roadsides and fields or your neighbors' gardens...or grow prize winning flowers yourself...this is the time to enter them in the Fair.

Her first word of advice to all entrants, whether veterans or first timers, is to study the premium book. Then if there is any question call the fairgrounds office at 372-5863.

When you get an idea that really sends you and get your imagination going in the listed classes in the book, stop right there and work on the idea, she advises novice entrants. You'll do a good job on it nine times out of ten.

Themes for arrangements are varied with one category of "flower games" (tiddly-winks, hearts and bridge, tic-tac-toe, etc.). Amateur garden displays have such titles as coffee break, shades of the past or foreign exchange and commercial exhibits range from a psychedelic theme to far-off horizons.

OUTLOOK ON CARMEL

Carmel couple does music for Frohman film

In Frohman Productions' release, "Ballad of the Harp," composer Martin Slavin and his wife, Abbe Gail, who wrote the lyrics, tell the story of the historical development of man's first musical instrument--from its conception to its use by today's rock and blues groups.

Slavin and his wife were born in London. He was for many years composer and musical director of Columbia Records in England after completing his studies at the Royal Academy of Music in London. With music credits for 18 feature films, he was conductor and orchestrator for the musical score of Warner Brothers' film, "Stop the World - I Want to Get Off." He has also written music for the Paris Ballet and was guest conductor for the Belgrade Symphony Orchestra in Yugoslavia.

Mrs. Slavin, a well known entertainer in Europe, has written lyrics and scripts for 10 British television shows.

Stressing that there is much professional talent in the Peninsula Area which should be brought together, Executive Producer Sidney Frohman said that he was highly privileged to have such talented people working on the film's production.

MICHELLE LAMOTHE, long time peninsula area resident of Pebble Beach, is portraying the featured character of Stella Kowalski in WHET's production, "A Street Car Named Desire". The play opens Friday, July 26 at the Forest Theatre-in-the-ground, Carmel. Performances will be presented Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings at 8:30 until the end of September. Reservations by phoning 624-7580.

William Gorham of Flight Road was the guest of honor at a dinner party attended by her grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. Curtis Gorham of Carmel and Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCormack and daughter Mary of Carmel.

AUSSIE VISITOR

Mrs. Heddie A. Slack is a guest in our country from Queensland, Australia. Located on the Gold Coast, where she swims and surfs all year long, Mrs. Slack is enthralled with our peninsula, but distressed that she has been unable to find a book dealing with the history of the region.

When she began planning her itinerary for her twenty-eight day tour of the States, the travel agency was unable to furnish other than meager information so Mrs. Slack prepared and mimeographed a run-down on the Carmel area to give to her friends so that they might have some idea of where she was going.

The house guest of JoAnne Sears, whom she has known for many years, (but has not seen for 14 years), Mrs. Slack is enjoying her stay so much that she plans to remain for 3 months.

Last week end she went to San Francisco and stayed at the St. Francis Hotel from where she sent cards home to friends telling them that this was where she stayed forty years ago.

HOME AGAIN

The Fleet's in! At least two of our ships that are very important to members of two families on Lower Circle.

Lt. Bill Nelson phoned his wife Joyce from Subic Bay to tell her that they would be leaving for home on June 6. Instead he left the ship in the Philippines and flew home arriving on the 6th and surprised his family with a second phone call that he was here and would be home in an hour.

Bill had shipped out December 26 on a guided missile ship headed for Vietnam, the USS Hoel, a sister ship of the USS King which was tied in the Monterey harbor over the 4th of July.

High point of his 30 day leave was the arrival of his third son, Michael Louis. Born June 13, the new son weighed 7 lb. 1 oz. and was welcomed by two very proud older brothers, Jerry and David.

Driving from Los Angeles after the baby's birth were Joyce's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Gueble, accompanied by their daughter, Stephanie who will remain until the end of July.

Bill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson Sr., have also visited from their home in Oxnard.

Bill has returned to his ship which will remain in San Diego until September when they will move to Hunter's Point.

HOME FROM VIETNAM

The first glimpse Lt. Warren Jackson had of his four month old son, Randolph St. Claire, was from above the rail of the USS Tulare as it docked in San Diego. Randy had arrived while his Dad was a part of an amphibian squad supplying Yankee Station aircraft up the Cua Viet River to Dang Ha and Heue.

After an eight month, nine day tour of Vietnam with the Naval supply depot at Da Nany Naval supply depot at Da Nang, the USS Tulare put into Hong Kong for five days and the crew had an opportunity to visit Sasebo Japan, and Nagasaki.

Enroute home they were held over a day in Sydney, Australia, to pay tribute to the Queen's birthday. Many parties and celebrations were planned for the crew which Warren by-passed to become for the weekend a member of the Sidney Sky Divers.

The Valleyite is devoted to parachute jumping (he even attended his own wedding in a 'formal' cast after breaking his leg in a jump at Balboa) and made six jumps with the Australians.

In addition to his wife, Yuvawn, and son Randy and their dobermans, Duke and Duchess, Warren was met by his mother and other members of his family that enjoyed a visit in San Diego before returning to the Valley for the remainder of his leave. The Tulare will remain based in San Diego awaiting orders in December.

Garden Thoughts

by Salih Mehdy of the Oleander Garden Shop

It is very rare for a gardener to go into a nursery and ask for Osmanthus (Greek - fragrant flowers), yet they are very pretty shrubs, which can take shade or partial sun, and have scented white flowers. Osmanthus ilicifolius has leaves which look like those of holly. Most of them are shrub-like with an attractive growth habit. There is also an osmanthus with variegated leaves which would brighten a dark corner. They do well in tubs and during their flowering time can be brought near the house to enjoy the fresh fragrance. These plants also are good for background plantings, with their evergreen leaves.

PETUNIA CUTTINGS

If you took a special liking to one of the many petunias which you have planted, and you cannot find them any more in the nursery, then take cuttings from this plant and root them in a mixture of half clean river sand and half peat moss. They will root and bloom for you this season.

WATERING

Watering is essential these days and has the priority over most other garden operations. Thirsty plants will be retarded and will not perform as well as those which are getting their share of water. It is easy to treat fuchsias to 1/2 tbsp. fish emulsion per gallon of water every 2 or 3 weeks, and thus you will get more bloom. At the same time, try to cut off the seed capsules remaining after the flowers fall.

QUICK COLOR

Plant ten seeds of nasturtium in that empty hanging basket and you will be rewarded with beauty. Seeds germinate easily and quickly. Hang the basket in partial sun and watch the vibrant colors spilling from it; use the leaves in salads, too.

Cover your peach trees with plastic netting to keep the birds off, but leave one branch with fruit on, uncovered for them to eat. They get tired of cleaning your garden of insects and bugs. This is just like saying "thank you" to them.

It is interesting and fun to increase your tiger lilies from the bulbils which you find now attached to the stem at the base of the leaves. Sever these aerial small bulbs and plant them in 4 in. pots, and in one or two years, you will have blooming plants from them.

ABUTILON

A good garden subject these days is the flowering maple (abutilon). These are called maples because their leaf pattern is like that of a maple. They grow well here in partial shade and in moist soil. There are several varieties of this plant: some have solid green leaves, and some are variegated, and flowers come in yellow, orange, and red. Most are shrubs which grow to six to 8 feet. The shrub type tends to be leggy unless their tips are pinched out now and then. There is also a variety which is suitable for a hanging basket.

If you are in the vicinity of Santa Rosa, it would be interesting to include a visit to the garden and home of Luther Burbank, in that city. We visited it this summer and were delighted with the well-kept -- and beautifully landscaped garden and a chance to see the fruit trees Burbank worked upon. There is a beautiful large Cedar of Lebanon tree, under which he is now buried.

RUTH FORD AND CHILDREN FROM TODDLERS' HOUSE

At Toddlers' House

Ruth Ford does volunteer work

Mrs. Byington Ford of Carmel Valley is one of the volunteers who help make Toddlers' House a good place for pre-schoolers whose mothers must work. Mrs. Ford, a retired professional dancer, teaches dancing there Tuesday mornings and the tots have a chance to show their skill every now and then at neighborhood functions.

Toddlers' House is struggling to get a license from the State to permit it to care for children under the age of two as well as older children. This service is badly needed in a Seaside community where it is often necessary for a mother to work to keep the family off welfare.

Director Mrs. Lenora Pinkston, assisted by Mrs. Annie Graham, has been working through the Legal Aid Society to try to convince the State Licensing Board of the need for her school. There are other licensed, private homes that take care of children under two, but they charge from $3 to $5 a day per child...too much for many mothers to pay. Mrs. Pinkston charges $1 and includes a hot lunch, snacks and a healthy, multi-racial environment.

Toddlers' House is now held in Mrs. Pinkston's home. To start a building fund, a dinner dance will be held Friday evening at the House of the Four Winds, Monterey. Tickets, at $3.50 each, may be purchased from Mrs. James Sanders, 624-4759, Mrs. William Norton, 659-4332, or at the Penthouse Beauty Salon, Doud Arcade, Carmel.

Music will be by the "Torments" and the "New Miracles" - dinner from 5 to 8 p.m. and dancing until 2 a.m.

Two boys charged with arson in Valley grass fires

Trial has been set for August 8 in the cases of two Carmel Valley juveniles who have been arrested on suspicion of setting fires in the Valley. The two youths, in their early teens, were taken into custody last week and arraigned on charges of arson and possession of explosives under Section 602. Juvenile Code.

The dynamite was reported stolen from the property of Jack Rauber during the week of July 8-12.

One boy has admitted setting the fire at Blue Sky Lodge and the two in the field back of the old White Oaks Barn.

The two are presently being held at Juvenile Hall awaiting trial.

Newton resigns CUSD board; Sassoon elected

Dr. Robert Newton, who has served as chairman of the Carmel Unified School District Board of Trustees for five or the seven years which he has served, resigned last week from the board.

Dr. Newton, who is head of the department of mechanical at the Naval Postgraduate School, plans to spend a year's sabbatical leave in Wales and resigned for that reason.

He was head of the citizens' committee which worked on the annexation of the Carmel School District into the Monterey Peninsula College District. He has also been a director of the Carmel Youth Center.

It will be the job of the board to appoint a replacement for Dr. Newton within the next 60 days.

Steven Sassoon took over the duties of chairman of the CUSD board of trustees, replacing Clayton Neill who has served for the past year. Sassoon's former duty as clerk was accepted by Hilton Bialek and Richard Wilsdon was elected as the representative to the County Committee of School District Organization.

The meeting last week was held on Monday, rather than the normal Wednesday night, because of a deadline on the publication budget for the 1968-69 school year. The board gave its approval to the $3,334,808 budget and it will now come up for public hearing at the next board meeting on Wednesday, August 7.

PALO COLORADO CHANGE

In other business the board passed a resolution changing the boundries of the Captain Cooper School in Big Sur to take in those now attending the one room Palo Colorado School through grade four. Fifth and sixth grade students from Palo Colorado were given the option attending either Carmel Middle School or Captain Cooper School

Fear was expressed by a number of parents at the meeting that this would mean the closing of Palo Colorado School which has students from thruout the district now attending.

There is a ruling in the district that students may attend any school he wishes to in the district as long as he has the board's approval and provides his own transportation.

There was a difference of opinion between some parents and school board members over the quality of education provided in the different instances.

Board president Steve Sassoon enumerated the reasons why they made the recommendation believing that the students would benefit by the change in boundries and attendance at the Captain Cooper School.

1. Teachers are trained for the specific grade level at Caprado is a one room, ungraded school.

2. Supplies, equipment and library facilities are better at Captain Cooper.

3. Playground facilities and sanitary facilities, including water supplies are more adequate at Captain Cooper.

Some of the parents involved felt these were dubious advantages compared to what they described as the "best school on the Peninsula" (Palo Colorado).

Hilton Bialek told them that at present he had no knowledge that Palo Colorado would be closed down.
